

Adapted from: Elementary Language Practice by Michael Vince

Explanations

Negatives

I haven't visited China before.

This is the first time.

I have not found my car keys. I'm still looking for them, have not = haven't has not = hasn't regular

irregular

I haven't started

We haven't eaten

I haven't eaten

We haven't started

You haven't eaten

They haven't eaten

You haven't started

They haven't eaten

He hasn't started

He hasn't eaten

She hasn't started

She hasn't eaten

It hasn't started

It hasn't eaten

Questions

Have you started your homework? Have you ever visited Cairo?

I've finished it!

Yes, I've been there twice.

Regular

Irregular

Have I started?

Have you started?

Have we started?

Have I eaten?

Have we eaten?

Has he started?

Have they started?

Has he eaten?

Have they eaten?

Has she started?

Has it eaten?

Has it started?

Has she eaten?