

Adapted from: Elementary Language Practice by Michael Vince

Explanations

too much - uncountables

I've put too much sugar in my tea. (more than I wanted)

I've got too much work. (more than is possible to complete)

too manycountables

There are too many students in this class. (It's very crowded.)

I've got too many books. I need some new shelves! (The shelves are full.)

enoughcountable and uncountable

Are there enough chairs? No. There are twenty people and fifteen chairs. Is there enough time? Yes. We can have lunch and then catch the bus.

There aren't enough chairs.

There isn't enough time.

There are too many students in the classroom. There aren't enough chairs.